The First VVA Chapter in the State of Maryland - The Gold Standard

DECEMBER 2011

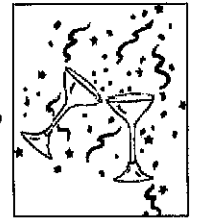

And a Good Time Was Had By All.....

December 3rd was as you should know the date for the annual Chapter Christmas Party at Rocky Gap Lodge and it just gets better every year. As the men get older they are more distinguished looking and the ladies are aging like a fine wine getting sweeter and tastier, but I digress. Much gratitude goes to several of our officers, board and members for making this Christmas Dinner a memorable event. You are never too mature to have fun, eat well, and enjoy life. We have one $100.00 Walmart gift card that has not been redeemed. The winning number is 682199. Please call the Chapter Office if you are the winner.

And on that note we will take the time to wish all of our members and friends a very Merry Christmas and Holiday Season to you and yours.

News Years Eve

Yep, we're going to be here! The party will get started around 8PM and go on until it's over. Bring your party hats and noise makers. There will be great food, fun and fellowship. Around midnight we'll go out on the mall and watch the ball drop, have a sip of champagne and bring the new year in with a kiss.

And somewhere in the distance is the Super Bowl party where the Ravens will face the Packers (predictions) Ravens 37, Packers 31.

Now that the stuff has hit the fan up on Nittany Mountain, everybody seems to have a Joe Paterno story. So why should I be any different? It was the summer of 1972 and I was working at Bedford Springs Hotel as a front desk clerk. If you are from that neck of the woods, you'll remember that the area flooded that summer.

It was a Friday afternoon about 2:30, when two Pennsylvania State Police cars pulled into the driveway with their red lights flashing. I just assumed that there was trouble in the hotel that I had not been alerted to. A state Trooper got out of each car along with a smaller gentleman in plain clothes. One trooper carried a suitcase and the other, a golf bag. This odd threesome came into the lobby and one of the troopers approached me at the front desk and asked if I had a reservation for Coach Paterno. I looked through my reservation rack and there was in fact no reservation there. Now me being from Maryland and rather bright, I knew enough that Joe was treated like a king in Pennsylvania. I produced a room register form and handed it to the trooper who did all of the paper work. I buzzed the front bellman and told him to take Coach Paterno to the Wannamaker Suite.

The Wannamaker was the nicest suite in the hotel. As I went to hand him the key the trooper snatched it up and grabbed the bags and told the bellman to lead the way. Meanwhile, Coach was talking to the other trooper telling him he was going to play nine holes in the morning and to pick him up a 3:00 p.m. Saturday. Both then got into their respective cars and drove off.

There was some conference being hosted in the hotel and Coach was the keynote speaker. As soon as they left the area, the manager came very swiftly around the corner grabbed up the registration form and in a somewhat excited state asked me "You didn't charge him for anything did you?" I hadn't and everything was right with the world.

The next day exactly at 3:00 p.m., the same two police cars with the same two troopers pulled up and out came Joe. The flashing lights come on and the Coach was whisked away and everybody at the hotel could breathe once again and bask in the afterglow.

Words from the Sky Pilot.....

In Western culture, the Christmas season is a time for a revelry of gift-giving. A world famous department store annually issues a catalog of gifts of value beyond extravagance. One of them was a $10 million zeppelin (a 230 foot long, 50 foot wide) airship capable of flying for 24 hours.

A gift like that seems unbelievable extravagant, especially when we consider the lowly manger to which God sent the gift of His Son.. All too often in the midst of our exchange of presents God's gift gets forgotten. We can avoid this by remembering to give from our heart. We can be inspired by love and gratitude not only for our loved ones but also supremely for the Giver of all good gifts, our heavenly Father.

Even the smallest, least expensive of gifts can take our memories back to Bethlehem where God gave to the world His love-gift of infinite value, His only begotten Son, Jesus Christ. With each present we give and receive, we can say from our heart, "Thanks be to God".

*What can I give Him, poor as I am
If I were a shepherd, I would bring a lamb
If I were a wise man, I would do my part
Yet what can I give Him, Give him my Heart*

*Have a wonderful Christ filled Christmas
Rodger Long, Chaplain*

Christmas is upon us and we are going to have one more sale before the end of the year. Starting Monday December 19th thru Thursday, December 22nd take 20% off everything including clearance (excludes special orders).

The Chapter office will be closed Friday, December 23rd and Monday, December 26th for the Christmas Holiday. We will also be closed on Monday, January 2, 2012 for New Years. We hope you have a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. Hope to see you soon.

And one more thing.....

As we once were, we now have young men and women serving in harm's way all around the globe. Keep them in mind as we celebrate this festive season. Take time to say a prayer and keep good thoughts for them. Here's hoping that they will soon be back among us and their families' safe at home.
God bless them.
